Welcome to Green Homes at Lualualei! This home just celebrated its 10-year anniversary since construction, but you couldn't tell by looking at it. The whole exterior and interior were just repainted this year! Additionally, the house has been gently lived in so the floors, cabinets, vanities, shower walls, and anything else you can think of, look brand new! This quality-built home is perfectly insulated from the heat and noise with dual pane and tinted window, black-out blinds, double wall construction, high ceilings, insulated attic, and much more! To effectively reduce your electric bill and maintenance costs, this home features 12 solar panels and net metering. This home truly has it all, ocean views, space for landscaping, a concrete pad on the side to park your boat, tons of covered parking and uncovered parking; Lastly, if your family grows and you require more than 4 bedrooms, this home was designed to easily enclose the carport for additional living space, so bring your architect to your showing!
