KUKIO, Kailua-Kona, HI

Elegant and contemporary, K95 offers a modern interpretation of the pod-style estate that earned architect Shay Zak his renown. The Zak architecture devotion to thoughtful design and exquisite craftsmanship are evident throughout the home, which features a grouping of pavilions organized around an expansive main hale, creating the ideal balance of privacy and connection.

From the moment of entry, K95 draws the eye to striking ocean views. Its interior is characterized by luxurious details such as hand-honed limestone flooring from India, custom teak cabinetry, and gorgeous waterjet-cut tiles. Outdoors, a lanai with lounging and dining areas flows out to an infinity pool and a spa. Within the central hale, a perfectly appointed kitchen features ultra-luxury elements such as Calacatta Gold waterfall countertops. A sprawling great room with soaring ceilings and generous living and dining spaces is oriented to capture the ocean views. Walls of pocket doors disappear to erase the boundary between indoor and outdoor living. An additional suite with a full bath allows the possibility of use as a fourth bedroom, a home office, or a media room. Two detached guest hales, one with yet another ocean view, provide retreat spaces for family members or guests. Both have private lanais and tranquil outdoor shower gardens.

Looking out over Kapapa Bay, the primary bedroom suite boasts a spa-like bath with solid teak vanities, dual walk-in closets, a soaking tub, and a steam shower with bookmatched Calacatta marble slabs. Ipe decking surrounds the suite’s secluded outdoor shower and cold plunge pool. Just a short walk down the Mai Tai Trail from 72-3023 Kapaka Place leads to water sports in one of the island’s most picturesque bays, along with fine dining and the spa and fitness facility at the Kukio Golf and Beach Club.

For the discerning buyer, this exceptional home offers sophisticated island living, peace, and privacy in a coveted Kohala Coast location.
