HOVE, Ocean View, HI

Great, wide, corner view lot ready to develop. Parcel has three large cindered building pads, two entrance drive ways, rock walls across front and down side and two 20 foot furnished containers on site. One container is set up as a secure living area, to utilize immediately and/or when building additional structures. A permitted septic system is installed on same pad as containers. From all building pads big views of the ocean and coastline are visible and from two lower pads you have South Point views. A great opportunity for anyone who wants to get started improving their property right away. Lot is at about 4300 feet elevation so climate of warm days and cooler nights is normal, with clear, starry sky. Hawaiian Ocean View Estates is a private subdivision in the rural Kau District on the Big Island of Hawaii. Most amenities are available in Ocean View Town Center and Big Box stores are present in Kailua-Kona and Hilo. Recreational opportunities abound, with State and National Parks, beautiful beaches and surf spots, fishing, hiking and more. An ideal environment for comfortable country living at a reasonable price.
