KAIMU - MAKENA HOMESTEADS, Pahoa, HI

Seize the chance to own a piece of paradise with these two adjacent vacant lots situated along the scenic Kalapana-Kapoho Beach Road, at the intersection of Ala Iki Street in Kaimu - Makena Homesteads. This tranquil property offers a beautiful natural setting, with mature coconut trees and lush tropical greenery, perfect for creating your dream home or vacation retreat. These parcels are offered together or separately below the assessed value, making it a rare and affordable opportunity to own land in this sought-after area. County water is available, with installation of a meter by the Department of Water, offering a large amount of convenience. This means you won't need to worry about using space for a catchment tank or maintaining a pump and filters, simplifying the development process. The property is ideally located just minutes from some of the Big Island's most sought-after destinations. You'll be only five minutes away from the Kaimu Farmer's Market and Uncle Robert's Awa Bar and Farmer's Market, a popular local gathering spot. Kehena Beach is just five minutes away, and Pohoiki Beach Park, with its unique geothermally heated pools, is only twenty minutes away. The southeast shore of the Big Island is renowned for its year-round sunny weather, adding to the appeal of this serene location. With its pristine beaches, expansive coastlines, and proximity to local attractions, this property offers both convenience and accessibility.

Offered at a compelling price, this is an unmissable chance to own land in a highly desirable area. Donâ€™t miss out on this amazing opportunity!
