Land on 3.00 Acres

HAWAIIAN ACRES, Mountain View, HI

This property was once a lovely family home with lush landscaping and a small cabin. The property has been uninhabited for many years and awaits someone to bring it back to its former glory. The old cabin was built at the back of the lot, so there is a 700 foot driveway with 2 separate potential house pad areas. Planted with lauhala, mountain apple, citrus, ice cream bean, bamboo, ti, heliconia, anthurium, and wooded with the native ohi'a trees and hapu'u ferns. There is so much potential to this property. There was previously a cleared goat pen area near the cabin and a fish pond. All improvements to this property were built without permits. With a little clean up, this property is ready for a new home to be built amongst the mature landscaping and natural forest.
